Development and validation of a screening test for urinary albumin in patients with suspected acute coronary syndrome or heart failure. Hematuria and albuminuria are common in patients with heart failure (HF) and acute coronary syndrome (ACS), but may be either a consequence or a sign of HF or ACS. In this context, it is important to differentiate between these 2 conditions; therefore, we validated a urinary albumin screening test (UAST) for use in the emergency department (ED). UAST was assessed in the ED in 2 phases. First, both ED and inpatient UAST were validated in 91 patients who all had plasma creatinine Q: Highcharts: Can't find id "Highcharts" I'm currently working on a project, in which I need a Highcharts, which has to be filled with JSON. Endothelial detachment following laser angioplasty of intracranial aneurysms. Endothelial detachment following laser angioplasty of intracranial aneurysms. Endothelial detachment with subsequent thrombus formation and embolic events are potentially hazardous complications of laser angioplasty of intracranial aneurysms. We describe an incident in which a large aneurysm in the right proximal internal carotid artery was treated successfully by laser, but in which a large thrombus and subsequent extensive embolic events occurred. Endothelial detachment and thrombus formation can occur during laser treatment of aneurysms, but has not been systematically described in the literature. The 3e33713323
