Simnor Business Card Creator is a basic piece of software designed to help users create business cards with no fuss. While many other similar applications are supposed to provide an avalanche of features and thus allow users to design professional-looking business cards, Simnor Business Card Creator is different. This particular program wants to keep everything at a very user-friendly level, so the main window groups most of the features. In addition, the number of the built-in tools is quite limited, which can be only good news for beginners who don't want to waste their time with very complicated apps. As said, the main window is the one that takes care of the entire job, so you are initially prompted to choose an image that should be placed on the business card. You can use pictures in any of the popular formats out there, including BMP, JPG, PNG and GIF. Then, you have to provide the contact information, including company and contact name, address line, with five fields available in this regard, phone number, email address and website. The bad thing is that Simnor Business Card Creator doesn't allow you to move the design elements around on the business card, so you need to stick to the original layout. On the other hand, the print feature it boasts lets you print multiple cards on the same paper sheet, sporting several options to let you configure the printing job. All in all, Simnor Business Card Creator is so simple that many users might uninstall it after the first launch. While it does its job and creates very simple business cards, it lacks a lot of features and doesn't even allow users to change the standard layout of the cards. "Now you can make personalised cards without using a template. Just upload your own photos or choose from a library of free clipart." Images that are stored in the program's library or on the hard disk are imported into the business card designer with one click. Once you have selected the images you want, you can edit them, add special effects and even create a background image. As for the preview, you can choose from various layout options and, most importantly, you can decide if you want the card to be printed on both sides. This option, however, is limited to the paper type you selected when you created the project. Once you are happy with your card, click "Print" and your business card is ready to be printed. The program's options include choosing between regular business cards and mini business cards, printing and whether the card should be folded or not. Features The application boasts a library of over 24,000 clipart images available for free, a program library with over 140 templates, the possibility to create business cards for yourself or for others and an easy-to-use, yet powerful
