We are the only Agile brand in Romania. Be sure to check us out. The Agile Evolution Studio was created by a group of passionate software developers in the IT sector who decided to create a platform that helps Agile Teams as much as they helped the Agile Companies. The platform consists of all the tools and techniques that make the Agile method better. Agile teams helped by the Agile Evolution Studio Benefits Support and training Agile methodology training Agile Workshops Agile coaching Agile methodologies, the preferred way to develop software, has changed the way we build software over the last 20 years. This change has been so influential that it is now considered by some (really important companies) to be the most important change in software development. It's no coincidence that the methodologies that have brought us this change in software and business practices, like Scrum, XP and Kanban, are all Agile methodologies. Agile is everywhere in the world, in companies, in academia, in user communities, in companies that did not know they were Agile, in big companies that changed their ways of working to Agile.
