It was designed by the fantastic Karen Ladd and it was absolutely dreamy! The groom's mother and grandmother were kind enough to pose on top of the cake along with the bride and groom. It really made me smile since so many of the guests were relatives and they had fun posing on top of the cake. The huge centerpiece was also designed by Karen and she has not yet told me what it is yet. There are flowers everywhere and enough candles for a whole room full! It's really cool that the cake, desserts and centerpieces all had a specific theme. If you're thinking about creating a themed wedding cake, you can learn a few tips on here.Join the School of Management and Analytics for a FREE online seminar series filled with practical applications relevant to today's students, faculty, and business practitioners.
