Q: Convert an html table into PDF and save as pdf using Angular 4 I am using Angular 4.2, and I have an html table which I want to convert into PDF. I am able to get the table with some information into pdf, and even when there is a table with two columns of 100 and 200 row, the PDF is created correctly. But, when there is a table with 50 columns and 400 rows, and the PDF is created, the HTML content is shown and the PDF is not created. I am using ItextSharp and the PDF is being created in a byte array.

Is there anything wrong in this piece of code? HTML code
